ATTRACTIONS AND SIGHTSEEING

GERMANY | Munich

MUNICH

Munich - the bustling capital of Bavaria- has something to suit all tastes and is easy to access by metro. There is traditional Bavarian architecture, many shops in the partially pedestrianised centre and culture: when weather permits, the long wooden tables are soon filled with people who come to eat sausages and drink beer. Entertainment district Schwabing is extremely convivial, but the nightlife of Münchener Freiheit is also well-known, not only in Munich but also much further afield.

OLYMPIA PARK

Olympia Park is the Olympic stadium built for the 1972 Olympic Games, former home of the Bayern Munchen football club. The stadium, hall, swimming pool and tennis park are open to everyone. There are daily tours with a guide and large events and concerts are organised in the park regularly. There are also a number of restaurants here, including the revolving restaurant at the top of the Olympiaturm tower 290 metres above ground level. Eating here is certainly worth the effort.

ALLIANZ ARENA

The Allianz Arena is the home base of FC Bayern München. It was also the opening stadium of the World Championships in 2006. The new, hypermodern stadium is a definite eye-catcher. The building's transparent dome changes color and can be seen from far.
