THESSALONIKI, a CITY that is easy to fall in LOVE with...

ATTRACTIONS

WHITE TOWER

The famous symbol of Thessaloniki and one of the most recognizable monuments in Greece, the White Tower was built as a fortified tower in the 15th century and used as a military camp and prison. The last restoration was completed in 1985 and since then the White Tower is used for exhibitions, while from 2006 operates permanently as a museum of the city. Walls were surrounding The Tower which were demolished in 1917 after the liberation of Thessaloniki in 1912.

ARCH OF GALERIUS

The triumphal Arch of Galerius is the monument that certainly is on the list of the most iconic landmarks of the city. It's known as Kamara and is located on the north side of the Egnatia Street in a short distance from the Rotunda. It was built in the 4th century AD in honor of the Roman Emperor Galerius who returned victorious to the city after the wars against the Persians.

UPPER CITY

The Upper City is one of the few areas of Thessaloniki which survived after the devastating fire of 1917. It is located north of St. Demetrios Church at the highest point of the city and extends to the Byzantine walls. Within the boundaries of the Upper City there are some of the most important monuments of Thessaloniki such as Eptapyrgio, the church of Saint David, the Vlatadon Monastery and the Church of the Archangels.

ARISTOTELOUS

Aristotelous Square is the largest square in Thessaloniki and one of the largest and most impressive in Greece. Its current appearance modeled after the great fire of 1917 by the French architect Ernesto Emprar. On the square are some of the most important and beautiful buildings of the city such as the Olympian, where is conducted the Film Festival & the twin building of Hotel Electra Palace.

OLYMPIC MUSEUM

A great place to visit and find out about the Olympic spirit. Enjoy a wide range of exhibitions and sport-related events. The museum has a fully equipped auditorium, 2 multi-purpose rooms, a cafeteria and a gift shop.
