ATTRACTIONS AND SIGHTSEEING

NETHERLANDS | ALMERE

AMSTERDAM

Almere lies very near the capital of the Netherlands: Amsterdam, A cosmopolitan city which doesn't bore easily. The city is known for the historic canals, picturesque and often very old buildings, the many museums, shopping streets and alleys, markets galore, the amazing nightlife. In short: Amsterdam is simply fascinating! Taste the atmosphere of the city during a walk or on a round-trip boat. Attractions include the historic canals, the flower market, the age-old merchant houses, the National Museum with Rembrandt masterpieces, the Van Gogh Museum, the Anne Frank House and Madame Tussaud's waxworks. The Leidseplein and Rembrandtplein squares are the perfect places to relax with a drink at one of the many pavement cafés.

JOHAN CRUYFF ARENA

The Johan Cruyff (Amsterdam) Arena is the football stadium of AFC Ajax. It is also one of the largest multi-functional stadiums in Europe where all top artists have performed. Visit the Johan Cruyff Arena and enjoy a complete tour full of impressions, things-worth-knowing and of course the unforgettable highlights of AFC Ajax, including the club's museum and fan shop.

WALIBI WORLD PARK

Walibi World is an attraction for young and old full of adventure and fun. The park is 45 kilometers far away from Almere.
