

ATTRACTIONS AND SIGHTSEEING

PORTUGAL | Estoril

LISBON

Lisbon is a historic capital, where 800 years of diverse cultural influences mixed with modern trends of life really create striking contrasts. Located mainly in the center of Lisbon, historical neighborhoods of the city is a compulsory destination for those visiting the capital of Portugal. The culture, the history, the architecture of Lisbon creates for visitor the urgent need to discover whether he's traveling to the city for this reason or for recreation.

ESTORIL

In Estoril coast you will find a great range of wealth starting from the Tejo Falls and extends from Carcavelos beach to Guincho beach, with the backdrop of the natural park Sintra-Cascais in all its glory. The calm of Gulf Cascais contrasts with the power of the ocean on the beach of Guincho, offer to whoever passes by there, pictures of rare beauty and unforgettable moments.

CASCAIS

Cascais is probably the best beach in the area. The temperate climate of the village makes it the perfect place to walk in daylight. The Cascais is a village with significant moments in Portuguese history, moments that you can find in museums, lighthouses and historic gardens that kings and princesses were walking once...

DA LUS & ALVALADE STADIUMS

During the tournament, don't miss the opportunity to visit the home stadiums of SL Benfica and Sporting LP where world-class players like Eusebio, Rui Costa, Luis Figo and Cristiano Ronaldo thrive. Feel the atmosphere of the locker rooms, find yourself in the trophy room and discover the story of two great clubs of Europe through the exhibits of the museums.

OCEANARIUM

The Oceanarium opened in 1998 during the last world exhibition of the 20th century, whose theme was the ocean. The aquarium could be the epitome of linking Lisbon to the ocean and it's a reference both to Portuguese and international level. One million people visit annually the Oceanarium and make it the most visited cultural attraction in Portugal.
